(a) population returns to its steady state
next generation
$L_{t+1} = \varphi(L_t)$
45°
steady state $\bar{L}$ after the plague: 0.53
next generation, $L_{t+1}/\bar{L}$ population this generation, $L_t/\bar{L}$ 0.0
0.2
0.4
0.6
0.8
1.0
1.2
0.00
0.25
0.50
0.75
1.00
1.25
(b) income jumps, then falls back $\alpha = 0.405$: each generation
the gap shrinks to its $(1-\alpha)$ power; half gone
in about 1.3 generations ncome per person +30% population
steady state = 100
140
120
100
80
60
−2
−1
0
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
generation (0 = first after the plague)