(a) Divided, each man makes 240 to 4,800 times as many pins untrained: perhaps not one 1 untrained: certainly not twenty 20
the manufactory, each man
4,800
1
10
100
1,000
10,000
pins a man a day (log scale)
(b) The same goods by land take 12.5–16.7 times the men
by land: 50 waggons
100 men
400 horses
by sea: one ship
6–8 men, no horses
0
100
200
300
400
men and horses to carry 200 tons, London–Edinburgh
(c) Too small a market stops the division of labour
a nailer, one year 300,000
a Highland market, one year
under 1,000
1
100
10,000
1 m
nails (log scale)